

WAKING EXPLOITS

STAGE MANAGER

Waking Exploits are seeking to appoint a freelance Stage Manager to coordinate and manage the day-to-day running of the production, throughout rehearsals and on tour.

The candidate must have exceptional practical and organisational skills and a proven understanding of the logistical aspects of touring theatre. The stage manager will work alongside the director and production manager, as part of the technical team, and will play an integral role in ensuring the successful delivery of performances.

Previous experience of this role is essential.

To apply, please send a CV and cover email to info@wakingexploits.co.uk or contact us for further information.

Engagement: 22 March 2012 – 19 May 2012

Waking Exploits create ambitious productions, touring to locations across the country, producing work that is relevant, thought provoking and innovative.
